We will explore the art of mark making, apply pastels over an under painting; utilizing perspective objectives with the forgiving medium of pastels. The goal is for everyone to unleash their creativity while exploring a new medium or expanding your skills.

Angelina Smolskis is an award winning artist who loves: to capture the essence of beauty around her, to capture beautiful moments that will live forever, to engage others touching their emotions, and to share unique visions of her perspectives caught in pastels, oil paints, and watercolors. Her works are often made alla prima and en plein air.

Willingboro Art Alliance presents our Artist Presentation.

Featured Presenter: Lavett Ballard

Mixed Media Artist, Art historian, Curator, Author,
Two-time TIME magazine Cover Artist

SATURDAY, March 23, 10:30 am - 12:30 pm

The Kennedy Center, (Lavett Ballard Studio),
429 John F Kennedy Way,
Willingboro, NJ, 08046

FREE and Open to the Public

Lavett Ballard is a renowned mixed media visual artist, art historian, curator, and author. She holds a dual Bachelor's in Studio Art and Art History with a minor in Museum Studies from Rutgers University and an MFA in Studio Art from the University of the Arts in Philadelphia. Lavett's art has been commissioned twice for Time magazine covers. In addition, her art has been acquired by many private and public institutions and has been featured in numerous exhibitions nationally and internationally.

The Willingboro Art Alliance is honored to have Lavett Ballard as the guest presenter for their monthly Artist Presentation series. Lavett will give a talk in her studio sharing information on how her background, education, and heritage has shaped her art. In addition to creating art, Lavett teaches painting at Rutgers and will share her thoughts on the importance of finding your voice, critiques, and work ethic in the business of art. Attendees will see many of her works and will be able to ask her questions during the Q & A.

Lavett views her art as a re-imagined visual narrative of people of African descent. Her use of imagery reflects social issues affecting primarily Black women's stories within a historical context. Her current work uses collaged photos adorned with paint, oil pastels, and metallic foils. These photos are deconstructed and layered on reclaimed, large and small, aged wood fences. This fusion of wood and photography offers artwork that both explores her southern roots, yet visually speaks volumes to continuing themes within her community.
